UC SAN DIEGO OCEANIDS BI-MONTHLY NEWSLETTER

VOL. XLXI No. 5

SUMMER 2014

eBay Fundraiser Win-Win for Everyone

The fourth annual eBay auction fundraiser was the biggest success yet, passing our goal of $2500 and almost $4,000. This is Oceanids' only organized fundraiser each year, and it helps support our philanthropic projects like the Undergraduate Service Awards among other things. This fundraiser was the brainchild of our Treasurer, Jan Ouren, and has been a success every year. Oceanids members get a chance to clean out their drawers and closets of unwanted gifts and purchases and make more space, and get a tax deduction for their donations which sell on eBay (or to each other!). The buyers on eBay are delighted with their purchases and our excellent service, especially our lightning speed shipping. This is a win-win situation.

We started with our eBay Intake Party on February 8th, with 18 busy volunteers and 49 donors. Items were checked in, photographed, recorded, evaluated, weighed, measured, and displayed for purchase at our "Buy it Now" table. Items which were deemed not valuable enough for eBay were sold at our $5 and $10 table, and unsold items were donated to the resale shop of the Friends of the International Center. Donors and volunteers enjoyed wonderful refreshments and while it was a long and tiring day, it was an exciting and fun time. Thanks to our committee of Mary Hanson, Liz Winant, Barbara Bank, Roswitha Enright, Liz Bonkowsky, Cheryl Burian-Baldwin, Irene Larrimore, Bev Douglas, Jan Ouren, Liz Lancaster, Ruth Stern, Mary McIlwain, Mary Cutchin, Maxine Bloor, Mary Woo, Nancy Groves, Mary Lynn Hyde and Diana Vines for all the help as well as help from spouses Vic Vacquier and Clint Winant for photography and Randy Bank for his help with everything.

A special thanks to our eBay listing team, Mary Hanson, Liz Lancaster and Liz Winant, and to our shipping experts Bev Douglas, Cheryl Burian-Baldwin and Mary Hanson, and to Ruth Stern and Mary Hanson for storing and retrieving the items and answering queries.

Many thanks to our 49 donors, who made the auction possible. We had 157 items for sale, and sold 65, in addition to the $5 and $10 table. Unsold items will be returned to the donors or donated to the Friends' resale shop. It was fun to watch bidding wars among buyers for some of the items.

Some of our interesting and unusual popular items:

- Michael Goode 18k gold earrings
- Saufkif sterling silver bracelet
- Portmeirion Botanic Garden tableware and linens
- Franklin Collection cats and eggs
- Faberge crystal glasses
- Fabrics, wall hangings, and garments from India, Indonesia, Guatemala, Mexico and China
- German crystal and silver martini set
- Rotary slide rule from 1962
- North American map from 1862
- Kaleidoscope
- Other popular items were purses, jewelry, collectibles, mugs, plates and bowls

Think of Oceanids while you are tidying up, and save your unwanted items for next year's auction they will become someone else's treasures!

Judy Vacquier, 2014 eBay Auction Chairperson

“NEWBORN AMERICA”

by Mihoko Vacquier

“Joy to the World”, people heard and sang.
 Welcome Obama and his rescue crew.
 So long our past indulgence, neglect and ignorance.
 Now, we Oceanids are celebrating a few
 Waited arrivals of newcomers to our friends’ families.
 Blessed you are, dear Newborns in their arms.
 Your grandma- or great-grandma- Oceanids teach you,
 In Deeds and by Words which remain all your life,
 Wisdom, Hard Work, Care, Compassion, etc.
 Practicing care, Love will grow.
 Oh, I like to see you, Newborn America,
 When You are Grown-Up!

PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

By the time you read this our Oceanids activities will be taking a summer break. There are no board meetings or Sounding Board speakers, the E-bay fundraiser has wound down, and many of the Interest Groups are off for the summer. There doesn’t seem to be much logic to which as ones continue, however. Or is there? The French language group does appreciate “les vacances,” but the bridge players find the game the perfect vacation activity.

For those of us who are retired, summer isn’t so different from the rest of the year. However, we follow the academic year. We are an official UCSD support group and our ties to the university in general and the International Center in particular are strong. We give of our time and our money.

Carole Ziegler coordinated another successful desert camping outing for the newcomers, and Roswitha Enright includes many newcomers in her hikes. Georgina Sham and Liz Fong Wills organize several much appreciated newcomers’ activities every year, including a whale watching trip and a baseball game. Liz also runs the Kitchen Exchange, which helps new and temporary graduate students and faculty set up short-term house keeping. She could use more volunteers, so please let her know if you’re occasionally free on Wednesday mornings.

During the 2014-2015 academic year Oceanids will award over $15000 to undergraduate and graduate students, and this does not include what we contribute to the Triton 5K fun run and the student run free clinic. So we can take a vacation knowing that our philanthropic endeavors are making a difference.

Have a wonderful summer, and I’ll see you in the fall (unless you play bridge, in which case I’ll see you very soon.)

Mary Hanson, President

Grateful thanks to our many donors

Oceanids have a wonderful tradition of giving, in so many different ways. Your support enables Oceanids to give fellowships to graduate students, service awards to undergraduate students, sponsorship for the UC San Diego Triton 5K Run which raises money for undergraduate scholarships, provide financial support for the annual UC San Diego Ph.D. Conference, financial support to the Student Run Free Clinic, and support for other events during the academic year. Thank you!

In addition to financial donations the Oceanids Board came up with an ingenious way to raise money by asking our members to donate unwanted items to us, to auction in eBay. This has been a great success with almost $4,000 raised so far this year. Thanks go to everyone who brought their treasures for us to sell, and to the hardworking eBay Committee.

Thank You from the UCSD Student-Run Free Clinic Project

Oceanids contributions are vital to our program, and we very much appreciate your support. Through your gifts some of the most vulnerable members of our community receive high quality, respectful, empowering health care in a trusted environment, where they can take charge of their lives and achieve well-being. At the same time the support helps to inspire the next generation of health professionals. Our clinic project relies on the generosity of our donors like you, volunteers and community partners. Words cannot express how much your support over the many years means to us.

Ellen Beck, M.D.

Dear Oceanids Chancellor's Scholarship Donors,

My name is Becky Nguyen, and I am the recipient of the Chancellor's Scholarship. I am a second-year microbiology major.

I have dreams of practicing medicine all over the world, and your generous contributions allow me to be that much closer. I currently volunteer at the Veterans Affairs Hospital in La Jolla and at dental clinics run by the UCSD Pre-Dental Society.

In the future, I see myself going to dental school and eventually open my own office. Ultimately, I want to make a difference in the lives of people all over the world, which is why I would love to join a medical missions program and go abroad to provide health care to underprivileged peoples.

Again, I want to send a massive "thank you" for being so selfless and making this scholarship happen.

Sincerely,
Becky Nguyen

WHY DO WE HAVE FUNDRAISERS?

At the last board meeting we had a visit by Ernie Mort who was Dean of Students at Revelle College until 1994. He is now busy volunteering with the Undergraduate Scholarship Council at UCSD and talked to us about the development of funds for scholarships.

In the past the California state support for the UC budget was greater – but today only 6.6 percent of UC San Diego’s total revenues come from the State of California. That makes scholarships so very important. The main objectives from which the recipients are chosen are:

- Excellence of students (academic merit)
- Opportunity for a diverse student population (academic merit and financial need)
- Special experience (study abroad, research, community service)

Approximately 64 percent of UCSD undergraduate students receive need-based financial aid, which can provide assistance from $2,000 to a maximum of $20,000, and is distributed to students based on their financial need. The total cost (including room, board, books) of attending UCSD for a California resident living on campus is now $30,500, up from about $15,000 in 2001. Also, non-residents costs went up from $26,000 in 2001 to $53,400.

Scholarships are very much needed to supplement financial aid support thus enabling students to more fully participate in their education, and to alleviate their taking on increasing debt.

Thank you, Oceanids for your donations to our funds. Through our annual gifts, we support a $5,000 Opportunity Scholarship – the Oceanids Chancellor’s Scholarship – through the annual Triton 5K; and we provide recognition and encouragement for those who are engaged in community service through our Oceanids Undergraduate Service Awards.

MAY WE PRESENT THE BOOK, published in 2013:

“The History and Artistic Use of Paper”

by Marianne A. Burkenroad

Richly illustrated with color photos taken by my grandson Jacob Avanzato.

I am a student of anthropology and have become a collector of cultural arts.

My book is based entirely on my collection of paper or paper-like arts created in China, Korea, Japan, Russia and Mexico. Many of these pieces I bought on travels to the countries of their origin, others I bought in San Francisco, San Diego and La Jolla. Several wonderful pieces were given to me by friends who knew of my interest.

I also deal with the history of paper, the material used and the method of making the objects. I added stories and legends about these pieces to explain their meaning for the culture that produced them.

The book is available on Amazon; the San Diego Public Library will have a copy, so will D.G. Wills Books on Girard Ave.; the Mingei International Museum may also sell it. Or you can contact me, maburk2011@gmail.com.

In Memory of Glenda Rosenblatt

Oceanids longtime member, Glenda Rosenblatt, passed away on Tuesday, April 22. Many Oceanids remember her always helpful attitude and encouraging smile. Glenda was Oceanids president from 1998 to 1999 together with Barbara Starkey, and again 1999 to 2000 together with Carole Ziegler. She was professionally involved with the Scripps Aquarium for several years. After her retirement, she remained very connected with Scripps Oceanography and UC San Diego. Since 2005 Glenda and her husband Professor Richard Rosenblatt have generously sponsored The Richard H. and Glenda G. Rosenblatt Lectureship in Evolutionary Biology (<https://scripps.ucsd.edu/people/awards/rosenblatt>).

The Oceanids community will miss Glenda greatly.

Information on memorial services will be sent by list serve as they become available.
